

SOUND STRATEGIES

Preparing for a lasting retirement

With life expectancy increasing, the length of the average retirement also gets longer.

- Retirements of 25 years, 30 years or longer are becoming increasingly common
- At age 65, there’s a 50 percent chance of living beyond age 90 for males, age 91 for females, and for couples, at least one spouse may live to age 95
- There’s a 25 percent chance of living beyond age 95 for males, age 96 for females and for couples at least one spouse may live to age 99

Chances of living beyond age 65?

Make sure you account for the possibility of living a longer life – so your assets last as long as you do. Once you reach age 65, the chart shows your chances of making it into your 80s and 90s.
